California-Nevada-Hawaii District of Kiwanis International Treasurer-Financial Advisor Position Description & Policies

The District Bylaws provide that the Treasurer has the duties and responsibilities to:

- Be and carry out the duties and responsibilities of an officer, a member of the Board of Trustees and the Finance Committee, and a delegate-at-large at District conventions.
- Regularly review and advise the District Board of Trustees on the financial condition of the District and its sponsored organizations, and shall be the Financial Advisor as defined in District Policies.
- Make a report at the annual District convention.
- Perform such other duties and responsibilities as usually pertain to this office or as the Governor or the District Board of Trustees may assign.
- Give a bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office, in such amount and with such sureties as are required by the District Board of Trustees.

Estimate of Time Requirements to Serve as Treasurer and Financial Advisor:

The amount of time required serving as Treasurer and Financial Advisor will depend primarily on the background and ability of the applicant. In addition to travel time, applicants should estimate that the minimum amount of time would include:

- An average of one or two-days monthly in the District office reviewing income, expenses, supporting data and comparisons to budget for the District and sponsored organization finances.
- Additional time is needed for conventions, budget preparation and Board of Trustees, Finance, forward planning and audit committee meetings, and meetings with the auditor.
- Preparation of Treasurer reports to the Board and convention.
- Time is needed at home to approve District and sponsored organization vouchers and determine compliance with their budgets. Direct home access to some financial records may occur.
- For new Treasurers, additional district office days are needed for familiarization with the accounting system, books, records, financial data, etc.

The District Policies, Section 192 to 192.2 further define the duties, responsibilities and qualifications of the Treasurer and Financial Advisor:

192 Treasurer and Financial Advisor Position Description/Responsibilities (02/06)
