PASADENA, Calif. (January 20, 2022) – The Pasadena Tournament of Roses Board of Directors has confirmed Amy Wainscott as President and Chairman of the Board for the 2023 Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association, providing leadership for the 134th Rose Parade and 109th Rose Bowl Game.

Throughout her extensive Tournament of Roses career, Wainscott has served as chair on various volunteer committees, including the first woman to chair Parade Operations. She leads the organization as the fourth female President of the Association. For the full press release, please visit the Tournament website, here.

President Wainscott not only announced the 2023 Rose Parade theme, "Turning The Corner", but also revealed the surprising news of a design contest for the 2023 Rose Parade poster.

“The 2023 theme celebrates turning a corner. Whether that corner is actual or figurative like the unlimited potential that each new year brings—we all enjoy the opportunity of a fresh start,” explained Wainscott. “Turning a corner means rising above – alone, or with family, friends and community. This year, as we turn the corner together, we share in the hope, beauty and joy of what 2023 will bring.” For details on the contest visit our website, here.
