1	It would have been fine except it wouldn't let me add the lunch ticket. I had added it but it wouldn't total correctly so I had to call CNH office for help. They had to credit it and do it over. Don't know how you would fix it. Sorry	2/11/2017 2:59 PM

1	I attended CNH Convention in Las Vegas and Mid Year was just a repeat. Not much new, I got bored.	2/12/2017 12:34 PM
2	I am happy that we could drive to the hotel. Did not have to stay overnight. I was most interested in what occurs on Saturday.	2/11/2017 3:07 PM
3	Rubber chicken meal was very costly	2/9/2017 5:04 AM
4	There is a wealth of talent out there, spend the time and find it, same subjects, year in year out with same speakers-bring excitement to it	2/7/2017 9:17 PM
5	Great conference! Good job.	2/7/2017 8:18 PM
6	No more negativity! Need uplifting and relevant speakers/classes. Ask new people to speak. BEST class was Team Building Activities! We got to engage & have fun. Brian Tenclinger was great but kept getting cut off. He was dynamic & current. Club Succession was coma enducing. SLP entertaining but not informative. BREAK THE CYCLE!!! Registration & Meals were too expensive. Young people won't come due to this!	2/7/2017 4:39 PM
7	I was disappointed in some of the speakers and people who are supposed to know what they are talking about but do not really,.	2/7/2017 3:32 PM
8	Tired of the same breakouts with poor presenters. Speakers need to be more dynamic to attract more members to the conferences. The attendance at this conference was so low!	2/7/2017 2:48 PM
9	Suggestion: brainstorming sessions in fundraising ideas for ages from K-kids, Action club thru Circle K.	2/7/2017 9:44 AM
10	Kiwanis education is dated and presentation aren't efficient, with much time wasted with individual questions. I'm not sure of the answer, but I've rarely been glad to have sat through a session -- much of it I already knew. Maybe a team approach where you get together a few people with examples of what's worked for them. Or make it a seminar in which all contribute. But the model of one person reading from a PowerPoint and then getting bogged down by overly specific questions from participants isn't effective.	2/6/2017 10:43 PM
11	interclub luncheon was overpriced	2/6/2017 3:10 PM
12	How about a card the members could carry with them showing they visited each booth and get a reward for completing the round robin.	2/6/2017 1:42 PM
13	Less talk on raising money--you are preaching to the choir!	2/6/2017 12:51 PM
14	From my viewpoint this seemed to be a very well run conference.	2/6/2017 11:07 AM
15	I would like seminars focused upon specific committees-such as Youth Services, or Community Services to share ideas	2/6/2017 11:06 AM
16	rooms were too cool/cold	2/6/2017 8:35 AM
17	Some conferences are the same o'l and same o'l. No new spark in these conventions that is why attendance is down. First affordable hotel with some class and when you say Mid Year that should be April, not Feb. as that is 4 months into our year.	2/5/2017 8:02 PM
18	Need new topics and some new speakers. Too much the same as prior conferences. One speaker was totally out of touch with her audience. Wrong audience for the topic.	2/5/2017 3:36 PM
19	The training was excellent and the Key Note at lunch was encouraging.	2/5/2017 1:58 PM
20	The young lady who did the social media seminar was a terrible speaker. Needed to learn about public speaking. Also there should have been 1 or 2 people with wireless mics, handing them to people in the audience who had questions or comments. I walked out.!!	2/5/2017 12:38 PM

2017 Mid Year Conference North - San Ramon, CA

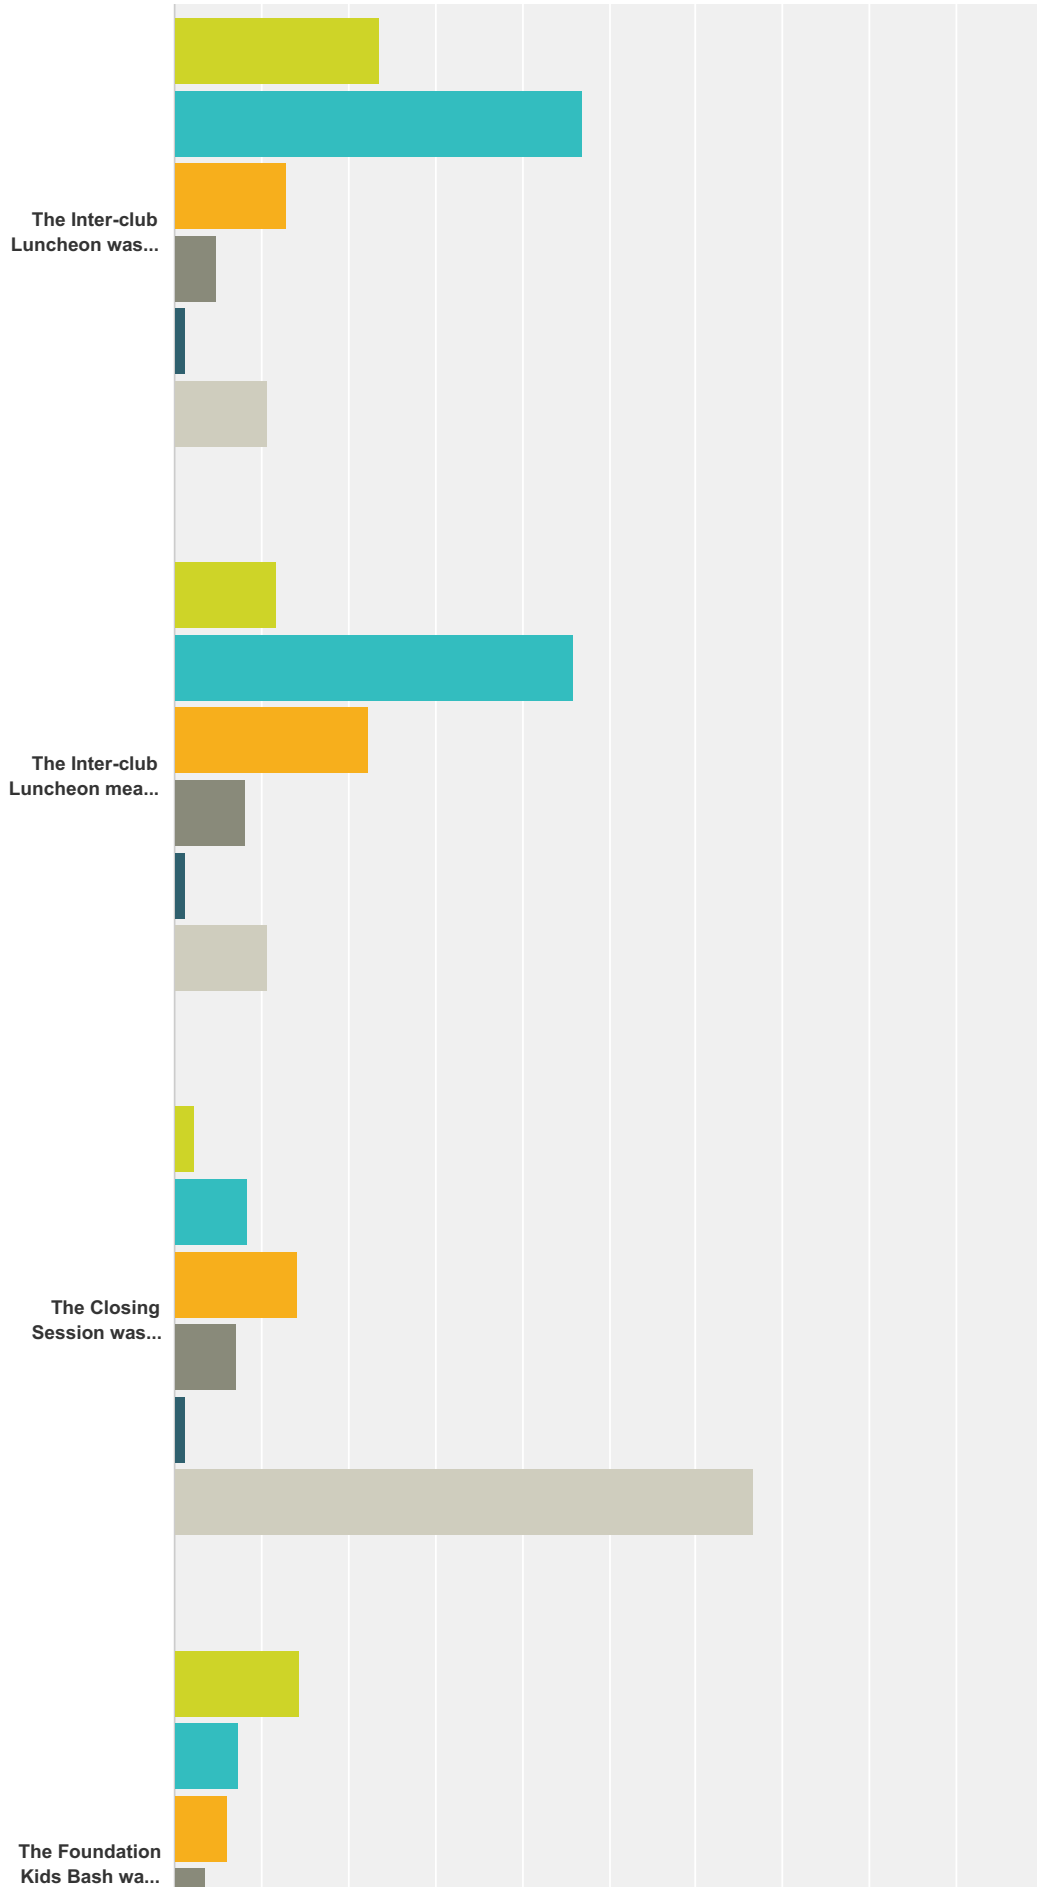

21	The recognition and awards during the luncheon while people were talking so loudly was disrespectful and disappointing. Dewey spoke mostly about himself. I did not attend an interclub luncheon for the purpose of hearing basically a campaign speech. I appreciate that the luncheon ended on time so that the seminar presenters in the afternoon had a chance to present what they had prepared.	2/5/2017 10:08 AM
22	I ordered the vegetarian meal. It was really bad. Not a big deal, but disappointing for 35.00 . . .	2/5/2017 9:59 AM
23	I was very disappointed that Youth Protection Guidelines training was not offered.	2/5/2017 9:18 AM

3	Salts does not mean a bland replacement, just no salt	2/11/2017 10:31 AM
4	Meal overpriced	2/9/2017 5:07 AM
5	The "stories" at the Kids Bash went on far too long. I had to wait a long time for my vegetarian meal, both at lunch and at dinner.	2/8/2017 5:54 PM
6	no more chicken for a while- find more interesting subjects and a variety of speakers-its getting old and attendance is declining	2/7/2017 9:22 PM
7	Check in could be faster if meal tickets were in the plastic name tag holder. A map of where the sessions were located in the hotel would be great	2/7/2017 8:15 PM
8	Lasagna good but chicken with canned salsa over it, that cost $60...not worth repeating. Banquet tables jammed too many people together when 1/4 of the room still open with empty tables. Lunch dessert awful. Dinner dessert better. Bottom line - cost of not worth the meal.	2/7/2017 4:43 PM
9	the sound system was very poor. do not talk when people are eating. we need coffee at the start of every meal..	2/7/2017 9:39 AM
10	Meal functions too expensive. Sessions some times too short, but creating opportunity for input and questions is also important.	2/7/2017 9:31 AM
11	I was happy to attend the general and closing sessions, but the training sessions I attended didn't offer much. Most were focused on numerical goals that are only meaningful to district leadership but don't translate well to the mission of Kiwanis. I'd prefer to see session that offer ideas about how to better serve youth in our communities. Maybe by improving and expanding our service, the numbers would follow.	2/6/2017 10:47 PM
12	Lasagna was very good. Speaker was a B---maybe a comedian or inspirational speaker next time.	2/6/2017 12:55 PM
13	Audience did not seem engaged during interclub luncheon - lots of loud talking while others were speaking at the podium, which made it difficult to hear speaker.	2/6/2017 10:01 AM
14	I didn't attend any of the meals. Cost was not picked up by my Club and was too expensive	2/6/2017 9:34 AM
15	It needs to be emphasized with the Marriott that they need to be able to serve people something simple such as a cup of coffee in less that 30 minutes!	2/6/2017 8:27 AM
16	Cost enough to get there and pay for regular meals let alone all these add on and the same clubs get the Inter club over and over. Should be a moratorium on how many you can win year after year. Other clubs are trying but it is the same ones.	2/5/2017 8:04 PM
17	As I recall, everything started and ended on time. I like that!	2/5/2017 2:33 PM
18	On to Reno speaker went on too long. Hard to hear due to lots of table conversations. Food was the best I've had at a Mid-Year! Servers were very attentive.	2/5/2017 2:30 PM
19	Inter club lunch was good but too expensive for what we got	2/5/2017 2:22 PM
20	This year felt a lot more sparse in terms of session options and the speaker had a very hard time keeping his train of thought. The fact we were heroded so close together and the back 3rd of the room was not used was also claustrophobic. And the exhibits were... very lacking. This is my second conference and I spent more time getting fresh air outside than in sessions because there wasn't really anything new/useful/applicable during many slots.	2/5/2017 1:43 PM
21	The lasagna tasted like frozen lasagne from Costco. Not bad, but disappointing	2/5/2017 10:10 AM
22	vegetarian option at interclub luncheon was not good. I got some weird polenta sort of thing. some other people at my table got a different entree for vegetarian. . .	2/5/2017 10:00 AM

28	It would be great if there was a session on how to start a builders, K-Club, etc, club. A nuts and bolts. Do this, then do this, get this form filled out, then do this, etc. Very nuts and bolts. KI wants these clubs started, but provides very little information about how to do it. Yes, stuff is online, but if you present this stuff to members in person, and get past that initial roadblock, it would make a big difference. People were asking other clubs how to do this, what was involved, etc. I was very surprised there was no session on this.	2/5/2017 10:04 AM

1	Again I attended most of what was offered in Las Vegas so nothing excited me.	2/12/2017 12:39 PM
2	Club Secretary and Treasurer Training. Never seems to get to all the questions that people have. Never get to walk all the way through a report. This is necessary for lots of secretaries who are afraid to navigate it and experiment with it.	2/11/2017 3:18 PM
3	RERUNS. MINIMAL ENGAGEMENT. SLIDES AFTER SLIDES AFTER SLIDES...WE NEED BOUNCE, FUN, NEW IDEAS, NEW CLASSES.	2/7/2017 4:54 PM
4	I didn't attend many of the sessions due to past experiences with the speakers not being the best choices and/or the same old thing.	2/7/2017 3:07 PM
5	Would like to attend other sessions	2/7/2017 2:31 PM
6	Excellent and lots of new information. Each club is different and how we use this information is critical to each clubs success.	2/7/2017 9:39 AM
7	I am a District Chair and manned a table and wasn't able to attend presentations.	2/6/2017 1:47 PM
8	Regarding "Navigating Kiwanis One. Digressed to audience questions early and did not cover all material	2/6/2017 1:33 PM
9	The programs I saw were top notch. In my years of business I have been to many trips and these speakers were some of the best I have heard. Jander was very good.	2/6/2017 1:01 PM
10	rooms were too cool/cold	2/6/2017 8:38 AM
11	Less talk by presenter and have multiple presenters. Get tired of hearing the same voice. more time to ask questions	2/5/2017 9:04 PM
12	Many were conflicts if you look at your agenda schedule and repetitious again. Gov. Pete Edwards conference would have been good but you added other issues not really related to Pete discussing our issues to date as Lt. Gov. but again the I Plan and Formula and money for the District and the failure of Eliminate. Clubs are having a hard time to pay there dues as you keep raising it slowly and want additional monies donated.	2/5/2017 8:20 PM
13	Pleasantly surprised there was so much useful information in the seminars. Keep it up.	2/5/2017 4:53 PM
14	Some sessions were repeats from prior conference so did not attend.	2/5/2017 3:40 PM
15	I-Plan was exceptionally well done. Very informative. Also enjoyed the Public Relations session.	2/5/2017 2:39 PM
16	Gary ganden always does a great job. Even tho the technology did not work in his session, he gave a good presentation. Gary grey was disappointing and needs to learn microphone skills. Difficult to hear him because the thought he spoke loud enough. Ridiculous. Use what's provided for you Shirley and Mariko nakawatase District great job. Unfortunately many people came to the second advanced session and derailed the discussion with very basic comments and questions that were covered in the first (beginner) session. I wanted more of figuring out what my clubs "story" is and how to best share that.	2/5/2017 10:16 AM
17	IO really would have liked to attend the social media marketing session, but it conflicted with other important sessions I needed to go to . . .	2/5/2017 10:04 AM
18	Some of seminars should be repeated so one can attend more of them. Offering just one time is difficult to use our time wisely.	2/5/2017 9:49 AM

1	No other booths because there was no room for more. Don't make the booths too crowded, e.g., the "store" was crowded in behind the registration.	2/8/2017 6:00 PM
2	add membership recruiting & retention table how about an LTG table to share ideas and answer questions	2/7/2017 9:27 PM
3	The young people were all jammed at end of hallway and lost. 1/4 of booths weren't even manned. Booths were same ol, same ol. Maybe invite local clubs to set up booths & sell stuff. Where was the jewelry lady? See's Candy crew?	2/7/2017 4:57 PM
4	Just not enough booths	2/7/2017 3:38 PM
5	More fundraising ideas	2/7/2017 3:07 PM
6	Booths by our KI partners.	2/7/2017 2:40 PM
7	More on fundraising.	2/7/2017 9:41 AM
8	more Kiwanis merchandise- hats, jackets, etc.	2/6/2017 4:17 PM
9	Kiwanis International materials/clothing sales	2/6/2017 1:34 PM
10	I knew nothing about the kissing booth, raffle, etc. Where were they, I did walk the entire corridor more than once.	2/6/2017 9:37 AM
11	Club booths sharing some of their projects.	2/6/2017 9:28 AM
12	clothing options, logo orders, signage	2/5/2017 9:40 PM
13	Mid Year in San Ramon did not have all the booths that were at last years.	2/5/2017 8:21 PM
14	commercial entities booths as a funding source for district	2/5/2017 6:35 PM
15	Vendors	2/5/2017 5:52 PM
16	Fundraising opportunities,	2/5/2017 4:55 PM
17	Fundraising opportunities (sees, etc). And I love the SLP booths, but they were bunched in a corner and were not easily accessible without blocking traffic or getting knocked into	2/5/2017 1:50 PM
18	See's fundraising, better selection at the Kiwanis Store booth. Not enough inventory	2/5/2017 11:33 AM
19	Project ideas	2/5/2017 10:18 AM
20	Stuff for sale! Cute hats, shirts, fleeces, sweatshirts, coats, Kiwanis stuff. We need to get our name out there. Apparel is one way to do that. People would buy and wear this stuff if you had it for sale. I didn't want a Hawaiian shirt . . and no one knows it is from Kiwanis. We need obvious Kiwanis stuff, attractive, etc.	2/5/2017 10:05 AM
21	Service Projects, maybe individual club booths from the area	2/5/2017 9:53 AM
22	Other companies interested in working with Kiwanians to build new programs.	2/5/2017 9:38 AM

1	They did a fair job in presenting their theme	2/7/2017 3:38 PM
2	The other booths were the same ones we always see.	2/7/2017 2:40 PM
3	Just the right number and not overwhelming.	2/7/2017 9:41 AM
4	District and Foundation Booths needed more room!	2/6/2017 4:27 PM
5	there could be more. I have seen most of these before.	2/6/2017 1:03 PM
6	Booths were well located this time so people could still work through the hallways...	2/6/2017 12:29 PM
7	Always enjoy the SLP booths - thank you!	2/6/2017 10:03 AM
8	Spread out the SLP booths so they are not all together.	2/6/2017 9:28 AM
9	I know it's tough getting vendors to show up for a 1/2 day, but I think many attendees would enjoy and patronize good ones.	2/5/2017 5:52 PM
10	Kiwanis clothing area too small and crowded. Need more space	2/5/2017 4:55 PM
11	Too few.	2/5/2017 3:40 PM
12	Seemed to be fewer commercial booths and fundraising idea booths, which I have enjoyed in the past.	2/5/2017 2:40 PM
13	No diversity just slp's and candidates . Enjoyed the booths, but little new ideas or materials.	2/5/2017 12:27 PM
14	Couldn't easily walk thru and see. Having the SLP booths near each other is great, but putting them on both sides of the aisle when they have so many young people there (which is wonderful!) Makes it hard to check each booth and talk with all. Consider placement....	2/5/2017 10:18 AM
15	Seemed mighty slim pickings this year. Not much there.	2/5/2017 9:53 AM
16	I am aware that we need key Clubbers, but there were too many at their exhibit and you could not get near it to see. Mostly blocking the aisle. It is good to see them, but they should be scattered around talking to Kiwanians.	2/5/2017 9:42 AM
17	I was very disappointed in the speakers. At last years convention in Sacramento they were enthusiastic and interesting. Almost every session had technical difficulty and the speakers were dry and humorless and lacked enthusiasm.	2/5/2017 9:38 AM
