1	Bring back the printed program!!! Some of us do not want to use our phones to find out what is going on - we still like to make notes in the program. And the name badge thing is ludicrous - please give us the black ones again, they were much more useful.	8/17/2017 7:47 PM
2	No practice for leaders on stage, no event instructions --the band removed its equipment on stage while Governor was trying to give speech at closing dinner, what happened to practice sessions, before event instructions on when tone in green room.....did our Governor get the chance to practice her speech on stage, reports were fluffy---we used to have District Secretary give a tofessionall power point on the state of the District. Don't just say we lost money tell us the numbers and the details of what is planned to turn it around and give us a report on the work each committee did throughout the year. Overall the Convention seemed like a lazy effort compared to the past!	8/17/2017 9:48 AM

1	You will notice that no meals were selected - they were too expensive, especially when the cost of registration is so high. $200 for a plastic badge thing and an unattractive tote bag is unacceptable. Other Districts do it for far less and include some meals, why can't we?	8/17/2017 7:52 PM
2	Such lost opportunity to put on a well themed and well put together Convention. Still not sure where the Convention app was. A simple URL code or sign posted at registration would have worked well. Best part of Convention was presence of Circle K.	8/17/2017 9:51 AM
3	I was not able to attend because this was my first year as at a convention and was not told that my certificate with the proper signatures was not enough. I had to have the RED RIBBON!	8/16/2017 9:15 PM
4	As always too many table saved at the luncheons and not enough room for other attendees. Attendees end up being split up and roaming looking for a place to sit while reserved tables are not filled. Installation was boring, rushed, didn't show respect for out going Lt. Governors.	8/16/2017 8:37 PM
5	Interclub luncheon meal was okay. However, I had higher expectations given the $27 or ticket price tag.	8/16/2017 7:12 PM
6	Only negative was that the main room was way to cold.	8/16/2017 7:03 PM
7	The Rose Float project lacks the strength we had in years gone by.	8/16/2017 5:22 PM
8	My wife and I had our son with us and we were not able to get up to Reno till late Friday afternoon. He was home from the Navy on leave and time was very valuable to us. He was glad to spend time with us and see his mom and I walk across the stage for the new Lt Gov's.	8/16/2017 5:21 PM
9	At the awards luncheon I was given an award which would have been better presented at the Foundation Honors Breakfast with some information on why the award was made. It was a Centennial Award for The Eliminate Project and it was just handed to me with not explanation as to why and what it benefited.	8/16/2017 4:45 PM
10	Better communication with old and new officers.	8/16/2017 3:03 PM
11	The meals I had were great - delicious food. Thank you for a chicken-free convention!	8/16/2017 2:30 PM
12	There seemed to be considerable confusion on stage with logistics, scripts, who's on stage, etc. A little more chaotic than before. Every general session early so there was no need to rush through the agendas.	8/16/2017 1:53 PM
13	I appreciated the diversity in meals.	8/16/2017 1:51 PM

1	In all honesty, I didn't stay all the way through several seminars, I skipped around a bit. Some presenters were better than others, but not many were remarkable.	8/17/2017 7:56 PM
2	Lots of positive feedback about the round tables, new topics, new approaches, interaction. Keep it up!	8/17/2017 11:55 AM
3	Convention planners know you must give workshops interesting titles and speakers . Use speakers pictures and bios in promoting the workshopsmake me feel like I can't miss the session or I will miss something great. And get new speakers and check what they will present beforehand. Tired tired presentations!	8/17/2017 9:53 AM
4	Gary Janders seminar on leadership was excellent.	8/16/2017 9:18 PM
5	Secretary training should be offered multiple times and more controlled with the complete presentation/process being completed.	8/16/2017 8:41 PM
6	Audio-visual support was hit-or-miss. This area needs to be greatly improved for future events. A lot of time wasted trying to get media issues resolved.	8/16/2017 7:17 PM
7	As you can see I did not attend any of the seminars. I do not go to a business meeting/convention to attend seminars.	8/16/2017 7:05 PM
8	At the Kiwanis Children's Fund presentation I shared information on The Eliminate Project as there is no one to represent it. We did a Fast Track on multiple subjects in one room and this might be an option for some subjects where more attendees would be present to receive the information.	8/16/2017 4:50 PM
9	First comment I heard was that a sign of a bad club may be that they don't use an agenda, very meeting I attended did not have a posted agenda	8/16/2017 3:26 PM
10	I had wanted to attend the meeting for volunteers for the House of Delegates but it conflicted with the seminars.	8/16/2017 1:56 PM

1	Loved the Kiwanis Store!	8/27/2017 10:32 PM
2	Location in the wide hallway and foyer area was good - greater exposure of the booths than a separate room, but still space to move about without undue crowding...	8/17/2017 11:56 AM
3	more merchandise in the Kiwanis Store	8/16/2017 8:42 PM
4	It is probably because I am a long time Kiwanians, but I really don't need the exhibits and feel like I am walking the gauntlet of exhibits at a fair, hoping not to make eye contact. But that's just me.	8/16/2017 6:23 PM
5	The Hawaii Booth raising money for The Eliminate Project was outstanding.	8/16/2017 4:58 PM
6	The exhibit booths during this convention were awesome but I feel we need more vendors and a little background music or actual musicians that would make the ambiance lively.	8/16/2017 4:28 PM
7	bad location, no real attraction to the booths, looked hokie, created a traffic flow problem with people standing around	8/16/2017 3:15 PM
8	I like to upgrade my Kiwanis gear at convention. Selection was limited and poor.	8/16/2017 1:56 PM
